Tasting Notes	The CUTT 2008 Fearless Red begins with a visual attack of deep, dense, inky-purple color. It is incredibly inviting with brooding aromas of ripe plum and black cherry as well as savory overtones. Underlying this are hints of sandalwood, oak lactones and spicebox. The palate rushes you with a muscular fruit-laden display of fully ripened blackberry and cassis. The fleshy texture gives the wine a compelling viscosity that coats the mouth and allows the flavor to linger. All of this richness is balanced with lively acid and firm tannins. The 2008 Fearless is an intensely showy wine - like the Lambada in your mouth.
