Tasting Notes	The 2012 Napa Cab lives up to vintage expectations. Mounds of boysenberry, blackberry &amp; black cherry jump out of the glass. Underlying the immense fruit, there is a lovely, but subtle, floral component lending elegance to this big wine. Warm, toasty vanilla from the French oak is present, but frames the fruit rather than dominates the palate. The mouthfeel is explosive and dense. Velvety Nutella, crème de cassis, blueberry pie and blackberry jam hit your mouth in tidal wave proportions. The tannins and bright acidity ensure a long, prosperous life in your cellar, but the fine grain tannins allow this wine to be enjoyed in its youth ...with a vigorous decanting. This wine is begging for a well-marbled steak, such as a rib eye or New York from Archie's Waeside.
