| Tasting Notes | Our 2013 Fearless Red is a wine that is quintessentially Californian for all the right reasons. The nose is bright and beautiful, led by instantly gratifying notes of blackberry and blueberry preserves and uplifted by a comforting core of caramel, vanilla and hints of rich earth. On the palate, the entry is abundant and fruit driven, continuing the promised berry theme well into the mid palate. The finish brings hints of Christmas spices and sweet oak as well as a savory richness typical to Syrah that has a pleasing mouthwatering effect. In true California style, this wine may have a bit of a swagger, but what can we say, it loves an audience. Drink now, this wine will age beautifully for 7+ years, but be sure to enjoy a bottle or two in its youth as the bright fruit notes are truly wonderful. *You may be wondering about this novel spelling of the Spanish grape Grenache, well in our deep research into the varietal we discovered this alternate spelling in an ancient Greek text, loosely translated into English it means “don’t forget to spell check your wine label” |
