Tasting Notes	Our 2014 Zinfandel, coming from the Luvisi Vineyard in Calistoga, provides a wonderful example of Zin as a varietal to be reckoned with. This is a seriously sophisticated bottle of wine. The nose is dark and brambled, think of a boysenberry patch characterized and driven by the rich fruit bouquet but also elevated by notes of violet, and crushed rock. The palate is a confiture of mixed berries, powerful, while also silky and inviting. The red and black berry notes dominates the entry and mid-palate before integrating into a thought provoking finish with notes of white pepper, wisps of smoke and the refined interplay of fine grain tannins. This wine will class up any venue, it is equally at home on the dining room table, picnic table or tailgate. Enjoy now and over the next 3-5 years with pinky raised or firmly planted. Your call, we're not the boss of you.
