Tasting Notes	We began sourcing from the Beckstoffer Georges III vineyard in Rutherford in 2005 and it's amazing to think back now on how much has changed since that first time we walked our block. As we got to know the vineyard, it became clear that we had a site deserving of a singular focus, so for the 2008 vintage we decided to keep a small amount unblended. From that came our first ever single vineyard, 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, then called simply the Rutherford AVA. This began our AVA Series and with the 2013 vintage we rechristened this wine Brinkman Block after and in honor of my mom, Christina Brinkman Stephens. On the nose, the 2016 Brinkman Block is classic Napa, with intense notes of blackberry and blueberry rising readily from the glass mated with hints of cocoa, Christmas spices and graham cracker crust. Tasting this wine continues the impression as opulent red and black fruit notes are mated to ample mid-palate acidity and quintessential fine dusty tannins so true to Rutherford. This wine while enticing in its youth, has true aging potential like the classics of Napa. Enjoy now with a long decant or will into the late 2020's.
